A Holiday Retirement Community

HOLIDAY
RETIREMENT

Experience rural independent senior living "Where the New South Meets the Old West" in historic Fort Smith, AK. Located on the rim of a residential neighborhood, Butterfield Place retirement community is adjacent to a pharmacy and an urgent care. For more serious medical treatment, Mercy Hospital is 1 mile down the road.

Historically, Fort Smith was a frontier border town right out of central casting. As the gateway to the Wild West, the town saw its share of shoot-outs—mostly between the lawless and a deputy US Marshal. The city embraces its colorful heritage, even housing its welcome center in an old bordello. The city offers many opportunities to explore: Ride through town on a 1930s electric trolley. Or see the nearby Ozarks through the window of a vintage Pullman Railcar.

AMENITIES OVERVIEW:

Wake up to a community of people who care about you. Chef-prepared meals are served restaurant-style daily by caring associates in the dining room. Each meal is designed to meet the unique, nutritional needs of community members. We offer a diverse monthly calendar focused on activities for the body, mind, and spirit, including both recurring activities and special events. Complimentary transportation provides residents with easy access to a variety of local activities, events, and attractions, including outings to resident-selected restaurants, field trips to parks, casino outings, and scenic country drives. We take care of the little details with maintenance and weekly light housekeeping.
