Set on a beautiful wooded lot next to a quiet residential neighborhood, this retirement community is adjacent to several rehab facilities, central to healthcare services and only 4 minutes to the best shopping complex in town.

Tallahassee is known for its beautiful parks and gardens. The city, in fact, has received the coveted "Best in America" national gold medal award from the National Recreation and Park Association. Don't miss one of the area's most beautiful sanctuaries, the Alfred B. Maclay Gardens State Park, just 5 miles from your front door. Spending an afternoon here in the secret garden or walking the camellia-lined paths will easily become your new favorite pastime.
